6th Sunday after the Epiphany

Yesterday's Community BreakFast was another chilly morning. 19 brave and hearty folks were served and we received $70. We are grateful for all the volunteers, especially the newcomers! Our next BreakFast will be Saturday, March 21.

Vestry meeting today, following our regular worship & fellowship.

Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper will be February 25th from 5-6:30pm..This is an annual event for St. Luke's put on by the "men folk". Please speak with Mark Goodrich if you can help with cooking. We'll also need 2-3 fruit salads. Bring the family or a neighbor. See you there! A goodwill offering is appreciated for the meal and benefits the Fair Haven Concerned Emergency Fund.

Sunday services will be Holy Eucharist (when supply clergy are available) or Ante-communion (led by lay worship leaders).

Melanie Combs will be interning at Trinity Episcopal, Rutland from March 1 – December 1, 2020 which will include participating in the liturgy and assisting with pastoral care needs. She will be away on Sundays and one or two days during the week. This is part of the process and training toward ordination to the priesthood. Melanie will still be available by phone/text, email and in person at other times; and is still very much a part of the St. Luke's community.

Melanie will also be retiring as treasurer by the end of June 2020 but will remain on the vestry through the remainder of her term (more discussion & prayer to follow).
