Melanie Combs will be interning at Trinity Episcopal, Rutland from March 1 – December 1, 2020 which will include participating in the liturgy and assisting with pastoral care needs. She will be away on Sundays and one or two days during the week. This is part of the process and training toward ordination to the priesthood. Melanie will still be available by phone/text, email and in person at other times; and is still very much a part of the St. Luke's community.

Melanie will also be retiring as treasurer by the end of June 2020 but will remain on the vestry through the remainder of her term (more discussion & prayer to follow). Anyone interested in assisting with the treasurer duties should speak with Melanie or Catherine.
