The 3rd Sunday of Easter

Greetings dear friends!

I pray this week finds you well in body, mind, and spirit. The days are warming and we have opportunities to listen and see as the earth rejoices in new life. Have you been listening to the birds' songs? Are your crocus and daffodils blooming? I found forsythia in its radiant yellow recently. We are all in this together, separation does not mean isolation. Where and how are you finding life anew?

Be sure to send along your prayer requests. We'll share them during the online Sunday worship.

~Melanie Combs

Looking ahead:

- Invitation for Sunday's Zoom worship is on the back (remember you can always call in by using any of the numbers listed). Seven attended last Sunday's service! Hope to see!!
- The Vestry will meet via Zoom & phone next Wednesday, April 29 at 6:30pm. If you'd like to listen in, please contact Melanie and she'll send you an invitation.
- What are your thoughts about a lawn sale? Of course, it will be after it is safe to gather in groups again. In the meantime, we can clean out our closets, garage, basement or wherever. You can drop off your gently used or regifted items at St. Luke's and leave them on the pew in the undercroft (downstairs), or contact another member to pick up & drop off for you. As we get closer to being able to pick a date, we can talk about volunteers and also a baked goods table. It will be a wonderful time to gather, give thanks and give back (or is it forward?).
- Work on the handicap access at St. Luke's is "ramping" up again! All health and safety protocols are being followed (and we have Bishop Shannon's permission to continue).

*This is another day, O Lord.
I know not what it will bring forth,
but make me ready, Lord, for whatever it may be.
If I am to stand up, help me to stand bravely.
If I am to sit still, help me to sit quietly.
If I am to lie low, help me to do it patiently.
And if I am to do nothing, let me do it gallantly.
Make these words more than words,
And give me the Spirit of Jesus.
Amen.*
